

THE COLLECTION OF RATES FROM THE OCCUPIERS.

Table 1. Factors Affecting the Development of the

The notice of motion given by Mr. James Armitage re the above appears to have touched some of the occupiers in the quick, and has, at any rate so far led one as to pledge himself in public print to bitterly resist. Mr. Amos Beeton's letter in your last issue contains little sound argument against the proposal. "Is not the rate got in now with more pleasure to the occupier?" he asks, most certainly I should answer, for when a cottager has paid his weekly rent he has done with all of being the ratepayers; in fact, some of the working men of to-day, so-called, go so far as

and sole wealth producer. If so then let him have the privilege of handling his whole and sole wealth as he pleases. If he is not a sole wealth producer, should imagine it to be a privilege many of his kind should highly appreciate; I am surprised that the Legislature should have been so long agitated for the reform before now, for they have complained when there has been an increase in the rate or any public improvement carried out for their benefit, such as private streets repaired, that the landlord has taken the opportunity of so increasing rents as not only to cover the cost of the improvement, but an extra drub in his hands. If the proposal is adopted then occupiers will have the advantage of any fluctuation of the rates, there may be some times when the rates are raised for public baths, recreation grounds, public libraries and other so-called requirements of the present day, they will know for a certainty that they will have their quota to pay. As to the placards threatening proceedings for non-payment, I take it that such rate or water rates carried out for the benefit of the community as Mr. Beeton, for I give him credit for paying promptly all honest demands. Or is it that the ratepayers are to be made to pay for the ridiculous "passive resistance force"? Surely not. Mr. Beeton, I think too, he speaks to give an enormous improvement when he asks for a rate of 16s. per week, and the ratepayers' wage does not run to 16s or 17s per week. In this respect it he persists in waiting for the rate to be raised, he is not only making himself point to the maximum, and refer him to those who are bringing home into the town of shillings for 1800, if the Leeds proposal is adopted, the ratepayers' wage will remain as it is at present, in all probability, rate laws will not advance, for time and again the direct result of the rate collector's meetings by our local legislators that the local liability is decreasing, the presumption from some of their remarks being that if some of the direct result of the rate collector's meetings is that sort of liability altogether. If that case therefore it will be to the benefit of the ratepayers, and the rate collector's rate of the rate will cost considerably more, but against that many working men object to the discount allowed to owners, and of course on the other hand. Landlords have long enough had suggestions of imposition thrown at them in regard to the rate, and they have not taken the ratepayers' rate. Let the occupier himself be the collector his rates and then not the rate collector as he is at present, and then will be considered as it should the cost of the rate, and the administration of the Public Health Act.

Yours truly
OBSERVER.

ROTHWELL WESLEYAN P. S. A.

A special feature of the above service on Sunday afternoon last, was the first appearance in the chapel of the newly-formed Daniel Band, connected with the Bothwell Wesleyan Society. After the opening hymn, prayer, hymn, and lesson, an address was delivered by the chairman, the Rev. John Harries, the superintendent minister, who alluded to the services to be rendered by newly-formed bands.

band. The players who were assisted by Messrs E. Elliot, Jos. Elliot, J. Tiffin and J. Brown, of the Rothwell Temperance Band, gave very creditable rendering, and the conductorship of Mr. Throp Hampson, the selections "Salem's Plain" and "The Star of the East." A trombone solo, unaccompanied "The village Blacksmith" was well played by Mr. Joe Elliott. The quartette, "Sing On" was given by Mrs Throp Hampson, Miss B. Turner, Mr. John Blackburn and Mr. Throp Hampson, whilst the Sunday School choir rendered the anthem "This is the Day" under the conductorship of Mr. J. Idle. Addresses were given by Mr. M. Ingham and Mr. W. Lunn, and a collection was taken on behalf of the new Instrument Fund.

A NEW CHALLENGE CUP FOR LAN CASHIRE FOOTBALLERS.

The final match for the new Challenge Cup, presented by A. F. Stephenson, Esq., J. P., the "Oldham Standard," was recently played between Heyside and the Rochdale Rangers, and resulted, after a keenly contested game, a victory for Heyside. The Cup, which was manufactured by J. W. Benson, Ltd., of London, Hill, London, is a triumph of art and skill over nature. It was wrought in steel, stands with its oblong plinth, 27 inches high, is urn-like in shape, and surmounted by the figure of a footballer in the act of "passing." The base is surrounded by beautiful floral and design, and the front bears the inscription: "Oldham Standard Challenge Cup," with the monogram of the donor.

every respect it is a handsome trophy well calculated to fulfil its purpose of encouraging Rugby Football in Oldham and district. E side the Cup the winners were each presented with a solid gold medal of neat and effective design, while the "runners up" were awarded silver medals with gold centres. The medals like the Cup, are of Benson's manufacture.

BOTHWELL PRIMITIVE F. S. A.

There was a good attendance at the above service on Sunday afternoon last, when Mr. Elward presided. An address on "A Working Man's Hire" was well delivered by Mr. Joseph Wade, of Bothwell. The special soloist, was Mr. David Tilley, who rendered "The Hymn Roll" (the request), and "The "Darkness," Mr. E. B. Bramley accompanied and the Chairman thanked the speaker and his committee.

"THE ROTHWELL PASSENGER TRAIN."

A new era for Rothwell is hopefully launch'd,
Its striving for progress is further advanc'd,
From a hut to a hamlet, a village a town,
The place of my birth has a widespread renown.

The era in question I stoutly maintain
Is wholly and solely the passenger train,

Years of expecting are over and past
And hours of suspense have been broken at last.
Then welcome the period, welcome the sight,

The passenger train is a "turn to the right,"
Alacrity now is "the thing that succeeds,
And pleasant and quick is the journey to Leeds."
Our fathers of old in their travels were slow
Compared with the methods of travelling now.
The Britons, the Saxons, and Romans of yore
Ne'er dream'd of the passenger train they're in store.
Then every good wish that my mind can invent
For the future of Rothwell from London is sent.
Spontaneous and happy the thought as I write,
Is its genial news in the "Times" I delight.

THE PROPOSED AMALGAMATION OF ROTHWELL WITH LEEDS.

GOVERNMENT INQUIRY.

THE CASE FOR THE OPPOSITION.

The Local Government Inquiry into the application of the Leeds Corporation for an extension of the boundaries of the city, opened on Wednesday week, was continued on Friday, Saturday, and Monday last, on which latter day the case for the Corporation was concluded.

The opposition to the inclusion of Sturton was first taken. Mr. Walter Hargreaves, a mining engineer, the first witness called, was for three years chairman of the Rothwell District Council. Five public meetings of ratepayers had been held in the Rothwell district and four of them were unanimously opposed to annexation. At the Sturton meeting five ratepayers were in favour of the inclusion and 115 against it. The landowners were unanimously opposed to amalgamation. The Rothwell Council did not permit the creation of back-to-back houses. A scheme for draining Sturton had been submitted to the Local Government Board, and the Council were prepared to carry it out as soon as sanction was given. To take away Sturton would deprive Rothwell of from one-third to a quarter of its rateable value and would add nothing to the Leeds rates.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hutchinson, witness admitted he had not been at the meeting, but the ratepayers that the effect of amalgamation would be to "raise the rents of the working men," but he should think he did not think it would, all the same, "witness added.

Whatever vote you secured at these meetings
was secured on the two grounds, the inclusion of the whole of the Rothwell area and the increase of rates and rents.—Yes.
Did you tell them what they would gain?—
No, because they have nothing to gain.
(Laughter).

The rates of Rothwell, witness continued,
were now 6s. in the pound, whereas in Leeds
they were 7s. 6d.

"How much is your sewage rate going to be?" counsel asked.
Mr. Hargreaves considered that the increased assessment recently carried out by the Hanslet Union would just about meet the cost of the sewerage of Rothwell, and that he had added to the rates.

"I suppose," counsel asked smiling, "you have never contemplated taking in Leeds?"
(Laughter).

"Yes," came the reply. "That is the one thing we have considered." (More laughter.)
Do you say that no part of the district of Sturton should be taken?—I do, most emphatically.

Do you say that Sturton is in no sense an outflow from Leeds?—I do.
Re-examined by Mr. Tindal Atkinson, the witness said he was perfectly convinced that the inhabitants of Sturton would be found opposed to taking their area than the whole of the district. It was absolutely certain to the existence of the Rothwell Urban District Council that they should retain Sturton.

The Inspector: Sturton has always been in your district?—Yes.

You say that you derive a large proportion of your rateable value from Sturton, but that you have spent nothing on sewer works?
—The district consists to a large extent of cottage property, and the cost of collecting night-soil refuse has been heavy. We considered that a good set-off to the sewage scheme.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: But you have now got a sewage scheme under the consideration of the Local Government Board?—Yes.
Cross-examined by Mr. Hutchinson.
Now, have you got any Ratepayers' Associations in Rothwell?—I am not a member of any.

Have you got any?—I believe they have something of the sort at Sturton.

And I suppose, in Rothwell, like other places, Ratepayers' Associations would come into existence as a kind of watch-dog of the local authority?—That may be so.

And I suppose, opinions expressed by the Ratepayers' Association would pretty well be on the spot, as to the shortcomings of the local authority?—They might.

Do you know that the Ratepayers' Association of Rothwell have considered this question?—I do not.

I suppose, this would be news to you.
Mr. Tindal Atkinson: He says he knows
nothing about it.

The Inspector: He says he knows nothing about it.

Mr. Hutchinson: He has represented the view he has given as the only opinion of the ratepayers of Sturton. I am entitled to put this to him, to show that he is expressing a view that is erroneous.

The Inspector: What is the document?
Mr. Tindal Atkinson: It is a piece of paper.

Mr. Hutchinson: Never mind, it is a resolution passed by the Ratepayers' Association
last night.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: Wait a minute, wait
a minute. You must prove it.

Mr. Hutchinson: I am entitled to put this
to him.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: He says he knows
nothing about it.

Mr. Hutchinson: I am entitled to put this to him the fact that the Ratepayers' Association had a meeting, and a public resolution was passed.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: There was a very easy way to prove it. He could have called a witness to prove it. I think you will remember only one single witness was called.
Mr. Hutchinson: I am entitled to put it
to him.

The Inspector: You can lead it to me.
Mr. Hutchinson: That will suit my purpose.

The Inspector: Yes, all right. (The document was handed in, and returned to Mr.
Hutchinson.)

Mr. Hutchinson: Now, I am entitled to put this to him.

The Inspector: He says he does not know,
he knows nothing of the Ratepayers' Association.

Mr. Hutchinson: I am entitled to put to him the fact that there are ratepayers whose opinions he does not represent in the witness placed them before you.

The Inspector: The way you ought to have done that, you ought to have called your own evidence. You ought to have called your own evidence.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: We are—
Mr. Hutchinson: You do not think I am entitled to put this to him?

The Inspector: I do not think you are entitled.

Mr. Hutchinson: Very well.
Mr. C. H. G. Bradford, of Bradford, was the next witness, mentioning that the proposed Sturton sewage disposal scheme had been prepared by a Leeds engineer.

The Inspector: This is a scheme without land. I do not know why land has not been suggested in this case.

The witness: On account of the extreme cost of land. Land could not be got at a reasonable price.

Are you of the opinion that no other land
is available for the purposes of irrigation?—
Not without going a considerable distance.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: You cannot not then get it by irrigation?—No, it would necessitate pumping.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson: The Leeds Corporation have stated that they are prepared to take over this sewage system.

The Inspector: I quite understand that.
Mr. Tindal Atkinson: As being the best.

Mr. Hutchinson: Now, I am entitled to put this to him until the general disposition of the evidence is clear.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson (to witness): Have you any reason to believe that the scheme will be effective?—No, I think it will be effective.

The Inquiry was then adjourned till Tuesday morning.

G. Bradford, of Bradford, was cross-examined at considerable length by Mr. Hutchinson. He admitted that he had not been at the meeting,
and especially the Sturton part of it was effectively managed.

Mr. Hutchinson: Quite a kind of paradise, is it not?—No, I don't say that.

Do the Leeds Sewerage Works form an excellent example of the management of the Rothwell Sewerage?—I do not put it as high as that. They are fairly well managed.
I do not agree that the land is sick with sewage and that the sewerage runs out of the ground.

You would not say the drainage of Sturton
is a serious matter?—No, the Council are preparing to take it satisfactory.

How long has it been unsatisfactory?—For the last two or three years.

Put it to you that the sanitary condition of Sturton is abominable?—I don't agree with you.

Mr. Hutchinson read a statement or report in which the abominable nature of the sanitary condition of Sturton was commented upon.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson (to witness): Do you know Knapp?—Yes.

What condition is Knapp in?—I should not like to describe it.

The Inspector: I can save your time. I have been to both places.

Mr. Tindal Atkinson referred the witness to a description of the "boiling sewers" of Leeds.

Mr. Hutchinson: Boiling sewers! That is not like Leeds.

Mr. H. A. Johnson, O.E. of Bradford, examined by Mr. W. H. G. Bradford, disagreed with Councillor C. H. Wilson's description that the sanitary condition of Sturton was a menace to the health of Leeds.

Mr. Wilson: You heard the evidence of Mr. Wilson that the conditions of Sturton were a menace to the health of Leeds?—I heard him say so.

Do you agree to that?—By no means.

Why?—Because I compare Sturton, the triangular bit, open land there, with the immediate neighbourhood of East Hamlet, I say Sturton is immensely superior in sanitary conditions.

To East Hamlet?—Yes.

Will you give instances of what you have seen?—I have seen Sturton for two or three years in going round a portion of the district
there and I made notes of some of the worst sanitary conditions that I found.

At 20 Vine Street, which is a row of back-to-back houses, I found that there was a passage about four feet wide between the houses, leading up to a peil closet, in utter darkness, no ventilation, and bedrooms over it. There was one tub in the passage which the occupant told me had not been cleared out for thirteen days. Then in Schofield's Yard, off Vine Street, there are six back-to-back houses which have disused cellars dwellings underneath.

The yard is filthy.
Mr. Hutchinson: Disused cellars dwellings?—
Yes, underneath the cottages. They are closed up with sacking, and there are four troughs close for twelve houses. The whole yard is filthy. At 48, Vine Street, there are back-to-back houses. These are typical of a large number of houses there. A passage goes through from one street to another, 2 feet 6 inches wide. Contained in this passage there are four water closets and an ash-pit, and the remainder of the space between the street is occupied by a little workshop. There are four houses to each close, and the bedrooms are over the close.

At 59, Grapes Street there three water closets which you enter from the street down two steps. The dimensions are 3 feet 10 inches by 2 feet wide, the doorways are 20 inches wide, and the floor is level with the street level. There is no ventilation. This close was taken off the living room, and three houses are in it. No. 1, Grapes Street was a very bad case. It is adjoining a public house, and there are two water closets and the whelp underneath the toproom, 5 feet below the street level, down
a few steps—no ventilation—wooden floor of the toproom is immediately over these places and is not at all tight.

Mr. Hutchinson: These are five houses which use this. These water closets, and all the steps down to them were littered with cabbage leaves, and other refuse, and the steps and the whole place was in a most filthy condition.

A woman living at the adjoining house was suffering from ophthalmia.
In all these cases, when we asked particularly the people who live in the close, about the state in which the closets and ash-pits were allowed to be kept. I went into Pottery Field in the adjoining district, at No. 41, Ebbay Street, there are two water closets and one ash pit for six houses. There is no ventilation.
The ash-pit door has been broken off and nailed up, and a loose iron chain has been put inside the passage leading to the close. There are bedrooms over the closets. This place was a very filthy close, and all manner of filth was piled up on the walls. At Railway Terrace there are seven houses. Six of them are without sinks. There is a defective channel, and part of the channel runs along side the causeway into which slop water is poured. There are two gutters in the yard to take a loose in making the water well water. Slop water is standing all over the yard, which is unpaved. In Low Road Place on the Hamlet Road, near Church Street,
there are seven houses in a row, and there are four houses occupied, and three have been closed, and I was informed that the property belonged to the Leeds Corporation,
and had done so for 18 months.

Now, these are what you have searched for throughout Leeds, or are those matters you have spoken to?—They are what I came across in the course of a walk round that portion of the east of Hamlet.

You have not made a thorough investigation?—Oh no, I saw a lot of other insanitary conditions which I did not have time to note.
Are you aware that the Leeds Corporation
have adopted the Public Health Amendment
Act of 1900?—I understand so.

Are you aware that, by section 28 of that Act, that all persons are to be under any bedroom?—That is so.

I understand that you found ash-pits
—It is quite common.

So much for the blessings of the Sanitary Amendment Act of 1900. Let us see how you have discovered anything like a condition of things in Sturton or Rothwell similar to what you have described as existing in East
Hamlet?—There is nothing approaching it.

Speaking as a Sanitary Engineer, it compares more favourably with the other? Oh, Sturton is not by any means in a bad condition. The small defects that have been pointed out, the flooding of the cellars in Sturton, the matter in making the level of the sewers, is a minor matter. The streets have been kept up at a great level to get possible gradients. When this new system is carried out it is a minor matter to remedy it. You can find that in any town, even the best regulated places.

Now, coming to the financial question.
What do you say as to the prospective liabilities of Leeds?—I consider there are very large liabilities in the proposed sewerage
Leeds.

Mr. Wagh: 80 much for the blessings of living within the sanitary area of Leeds.
(Laughter).

Mr. Wagh was about to put questions to the witness as to the cost of the Leeds sewage scheme, but the Inspector said it was impossible for Mr. Johnson to give any idea.

Mr. Hutchinson (to Mr. Wagh): It's like saying "If I had a brother would he like to be a beggar?" (Laughter).

Mr. Wagh: I don't accept my friend's suggestion; it is ingenious, but off the point.
(Laughter).

In cross-examination by Mr. Hutchinson, the witness said the necessities of Leeds would in time demand the construction of the new sewerage.

Then the market for the water is provided?
The market for the water is the necessity for its use, and the ultimate necessity, why?

What is the ultimate necessity for the provision of increased waterworks—necessity
with regard to the health of the people.

Replying to further questions, the witness said the proposed sewage works for Sturton were estimated to cost £10,500, and if the sewerage were pumped, it would cost an expenditure of another £15,000 would be incurred.

Don't you think an outlay of £22,000 for the purpose of dealing with the sewage of 2,500 people is a "bit thick"? (Laughter).

Witness replied that £21,000 would cover
the cost of the works, but if a pumping scheme were adopted then the amount would then provide for a total population of 10,000.

Mr. Stevenson, who has been medical officer of health for the Rothwell district for 17 years, expressed the opinion that although Rothwell was by no means perfect, its condition would compare favourably with any similar district. There was nothing in Sturton to compare with the condition of things in East Hamlet. Discussing what was called the "terrible infant mortality" of Sturton, which in one year showed a death rate of 371
for every thousand children born, Dr. Stevenson expressed the opinion that it was an unjust way of calculating the infant mortality to take a district like Sturton alone. To take such a small population was not a fair
method of arriving at the rate of infant mortality.

The Inspector: But you don't call 2,500 a small population. If there were only twenty it would be unjust to calculate the percentage
but, surely, on a population of 2,500.

Witness (continuing) said that the infantile mortality for the last five years for the whole district of Rothwell was 157 per 1,000 births, whereas during the same period the rate in Leeds was 177. In his report for the year in which the rate of infantile mortality was high witness said the influence of housing must to certain extent account for the excessive infant mortality, but other factors were the neglect of elementary principles of health, exposure, and the feeding bottle. During the particular year in question the birth in Sturton
only numbered thirty.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hutchinson, witness admitted that Sturton was not in a satisfactory condition.

Counsel drew attention to the infantile
death rate of Sturton for a certain year which was 3.22. "That," said he, "is quite as bad as the infantile death-rate, isn't it?"

Witness: I don't doubt it.
And quite as good evidence of the bad administration and insanitary condition of Sturton
as the infantile death-rate, isn't it?"

Do you know what the infantile death-rate was in Leeds for the same year?—No.

Well, I will give it you. It was 3. So that yours was about 54 per cent greater.

In answer to the Inspector, Dr. Stevenson admitted that Rothwell was not a small-population of its own, and if it came broke out its history would have to send it to the Hamlet District Council's hospital. He admitted the recent outbreak of dysentery at the back-to-back house system and denied that the sale of milk from a farm at Sturton, where the persons milking the cows were found to have the bacilli in their throats, was also guilty responsible for it.

Mr. W. Hargreaves, who has taken a prominent part in opposing incorporation, was recalled for cross-examination by Mr. Hutchinson.
"In the course of your campaign," asked counsel, "did you not say there was not the least doubt that Sturton owed everything to Leeds?"

Witness: I don't remember.
Mr. Hutchinson: Well, it is stated so in the paper.

After lunch, Mr. Tindal Atkinson commented that the scheme was entirely different from the original proposal which the Inspector at the outset of the inquiry, pointed out as unworkable in the same that it comprised a large area of agricultural land. If he observed, the secret history of the case was written it would be

L. PARISH CHURCH v.
OULTON.

Saturday afternoon last. A good spectators assembled to witness although the day was anything but ideal. The match was a position occupying a prominent position in the New Yorkshire league were conveyed on their excellent form shown in any of the seasons as having an almost semi-final round and were the favourites for the Cup. The score for the Churcheites, 1-0, was the first time the boys of the ball was well planned when the game became, as the boys of the homesters, the Oakington-Churcheites. A Holmes kicking was transferred to the other side of the corner, Kate eventually from a shot by Hirst, which was a half-way again in the second goal. Oulton next sent and ending the ball wide of the goal. Hargrave again kicked and ending the ball wide of the goal. From another Oulton goal had a lucky escape, and striking Hail and bounding back to the goal. The game was the Parish had showing their opponents had quickly to the other side of the pressure. A successful in scoring his goal, of affairs now looked to the Oakington-Churcheites, the game, of attacking looked to the Oakington-Churcheites.

Wright was not on the ground, but he was on the team. When he was not on the ground, Wright made a wretched mess with one of his characteristic "Owls." If he was going to score, but not so successful. Half-time, he was still on the ground, but the Owls had the chance to win. Bradley centred the ball and the referee found the ball and interfering, which was witnessed with anxiety by the homesters. The homesters renewed their attack and Higgins found the net but was fouled by the referee. Long was fouled by the referee and the referee has stopped play and all to roll between his legs. The referee has again appeared to the homesters. The juniors were fouled by the referee. Instead of giving the referee a warning, the referee was frequently fouled by the homesters. At this instant, they kept the ball and the referee again became aggressive and hit him too slow let slip and he hit home backs were playing and the referee was fouled by the referee.

CARLTON WESLEYAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.
ENTERTAINMENT AND ANNUAL PRIZE DISTRIBUTION.

In connection with the above Sunday School, a public tea was provided in the school-room on Wednesday last, and was well-attended. The tea-buffet was provided by Miss A. Frost, M. Simmonds, I. Fozzard, M. Oley, P. Ellis, and A. P. Bell. These were assisted in the preparation by Mrs. Willingham, Mrs. Walter Knightley, and Mrs. Boston. In the evening, an entertainment took place in the school-room, there being a crowded attendance. Mr. W. Illingworth presided, the following programme being contributed:—
"The Sky" by Miss M. E. Brown; one of Sany's Hymns by Miss A. E. Fox; Miss Gertrude Ellis, and Master Robert Ellis, dialogues, "Lady Houghton" by Miss L. Bell, and Miss Kate, and "Apartment" by Mr. Arthur Young, Mr. A. Pickers, Mr. Sam Pickers, and Mr. Hiram Ward; recitation, "Music" by Miss Lillian Brown; tableaux by Miss A. Fozzard, I. Scholey, I. Fozzard, L. Brown, E. Illingworth, M. Oley, M. A. Frost; "I will not be long" by Miss M. Brown, M. Nums, and E. Fieldhouse; recitation, "A child's faith" by Miss Gertrude Ellis; recitation, "A Summer's ramble" by Miss Daisy Illingworth; Dialogues, "Wanted, a Servant" by Miss A. Simmonds, I. Fozzard, A. Brown, E. P. Bell, H. M. Bell, P. Ellis, Master Joseph Pickers, and Mrs. Willingham.

During the evening Mrs. Boston distributed a number of book prizes to the Sunday School scholars, for regular attendance and for favour, the following being the prize winners:—
Special prizes—Walter Brown, Walter Ashton, Albert Ashton, William Fozzard, Lawrence Brown, William Fox, Joseph Spick, John Willie Wilson, Clifford Pickers, William Brown, Harry Spick, Clarence Pickers, Lillian Brown, Mary Ellis, Brown, L. Ashton, Hilda Scholey, Edith Scholey, Lillian Brown, 2nd prize—Robert Ellis, Gertrude Brown, Percy Dawson, William Fozzard, Minnie Brown, Hannah Wofford, Emily Wofford, Elizabeth Crowley.

The school officers and workers were well rewarded for their efforts, the whole proceedings passing off with marked success. The proceeds, which go to the school funds, amounted to £2 2s 4d.

CHESS TOURNAMENT.

This tournament, which has been in progress for a considerable length of time, has, by order of the Committee, been brought to a close, and all games not played have been declared "draws." It will be seen at a glance at the table below, that Mr. A. Varley has won the tournament, having played all his games and only lost two. He is closely followed by Mr. Joe Lunn, who has won the second prize by only losing three games. Below will be found the record of the games.

CONSTITUTION AND HEADACHE.

BILE BEANS BANISH BOTH.

Constitution is the cause of many of the ailments from which mankind suffers. In most cases it is due to defective liver action, and as Bile Beans act directly on the liver, causing it to secrete Nature's own aperient—the bile—their use and constipation in the strictest sense.

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

Someone remarks that "no man is ever thoroughly contented until he is perished." If constancy means unchangeableness—seeing today with yesterday's eyes, no matter what new light has fallen—then the statement is correct. But there is much as well as constancy in a thing's self—constancy of mind, or a man's determination to do right even when the course of action with which he is surrounded seems to be wrong.

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Is Miss Fox considered a pretty girl?" "Yes, she will be some day." "How can that be?" "She has a rich skin who will leave her every day." "Yes, Ernest gave me this ring. I accepted him last night." "Is it an engagement?" "Yes, I am really." "He said to call on you, didn't he?" "Yes, and I was beginning to feel I had to accept him."

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Mr. Roderick, 'But are you not taking considerable risk in letting your young men over for two or three weeks?' 'Yes, but I have seen them,' said Mr. Roderick. 'But then, you say, they were over so that they have their appetites. So I save money in the long run.'"

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Tess! 'But does the chimney always smoke?'" "Yes, but it is a chimney, and only when there's a fire in the grate."

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Is Miss Fox considered a pretty girl?" "Yes, she will be some day." "How can that be?" "She has a rich skin who will leave her every day." "Yes, Ernest gave me this ring. I accepted him last night." "Is it an engagement?" "Yes, I am really." "He said to call on you, didn't he?" "Yes, and I was beginning to feel I had to accept him."

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Mr. Roderick, 'But are you not taking considerable risk in letting your young men over for two or three weeks?' 'Yes, but I have seen them,' said Mr. Roderick. 'But then, you say, they were over so that they have their appetites. So I save money in the long run.'"

CONSTITUTION V. CONTRACT.

"Tess! 'But does the chimney always smoke?'" "Yes, but it is a chimney, and only when there's a fire in the grate."

CONSTITUTION AND HEADACHE.

BILE BEANS BANISH BOTH.

Constitution is the cause of many of the ailments from which mankind suffers. In most cases it is due to defective liver action, and as Bile Beans act directly on the liver, causing it to secrete Nature's own aperient—the bile—their use and constipation in the strictest sense.

ROTHWELL SPIRITUAL CHURCH

The lyceum session was commenced on Sunday morning, when the children were introduced through the silver and golden chain recitations, musical drill, and calisthenics. Recitations were given by Alice Johnson, "Spring Flowers"; and Fred Blacker, "When I'm a Million".

Miss Burton, Mr. A. Kitson, of Dewsbury, and Mr. B. Ellis, and Mr. H. Dawson, who conducted the lyceum, gave addresses. At the afternoon session, Mr. Dawson introduced Miss Burton and Mr. Kitson who took charge of the session.

given by the children. There was again a collection of the children's names for the temperance description. At night, Mr. Kissel presided over the proceedings and spoke on the youth movement. Miss Barton also spoke and their being a full attendance.

On Monday, a public tea was provided and superintended by Mrs. Johnson, and Mrs. J. H. Johnson. Mr. Joseph Dixon, of Oualle, was in attendance. Mr. Kissel presided over the evening meeting and an address was given by Miss Barton on the subject of temperance descriptions. Collections were taken at all the services in behalf of the church funds.

MIDDLETON COLLIERY IDLE.

NINE MEN'S STRIKE STOPS 700.

A dispute concerning the wages of four engine-men and five firemen employed at the Middleton Colliery striked yesterday in the morning, and the men have been at work since they being stopped and about 700 men and boys being thrown idle.

The firemen and engine-men received notice

The notices for a reduction of about 3d per ton, which was the contention of the collieries, were issued on the 23rd, and the advance of the colliers some time ago, they therefore would accept a reduction in common, with men working in the pit. Not accepting the view of the matter, the mine was struck work yesterday morning, and the miners were therefore unable to go down the pit. It is hoped that a resumption of work will be possible to-day.

The notices for a reduction in wages to the management connected with the West Yorkshire collieries terminate to-day, and owing to the colliers' settlement not being reached, as at the time as at Wheldale and Lofthouse collieries no ceased work, with result that the colliers' strike will continue to-day.

PERVIOUS EFFECT OF A CRUST OF BREAD.

A curious effect of a crust of bread is communicated by a Mexborough woman, who, after suffering forty years from indigestion and flatulency, has been restored to health by bile salts. She says: "When I saw a piece of crust I had it most peculiar effect. It would suggest the sticking of food at the throat, a feeling of dryness, and by degrees a burning, cutting pain would come on. I had had a long time in losing a girl, and frequent nervous attacks. I should vomit green bile every day, and be so bad that for two or three days afterwards I could do no work. An

...pan as the chaff and through to the
...the shaking sign that another

...be prostrated for a few days, un-
...rrible. My husband used to look at me
...sometimes and say, 'You look like death.'
... Sometimes I should be burning hot one
...and chill as I go the next, and these
...errate hot and cold sensations would occa-
...ually keep me awake all night. The doc-
... I consulted didn't seem able to give me
...relief. I can safely say I have swallowed
...of bottles of medicines and boxes of ...different pills but still I went on ailing just
...the same for another three months ago.
...that time I was so bad, that the advice

After beginning with this "beast" found me during me. I perservered with them, and within three months they had cured me completely. For forty years I had never been cured from indigestion and biliousness for longer than a few days. It is now twelve years since bile has been cured me, and during a whole of that time I have never had a spe of either complaint. This leaves no doubt above the permanency of my cure."

The above facts have been embodied in a statement made by the subject of the case—Mrs. B. Burdick, of Thier's Cottage, near Mexico—before a Commissioner for Oaths.

NEW BUILDINGS.

Mr. H. G. Goldthorpe had submitted a sketch and quotation for the alteration of the new school in the Registry office, the price quoted being £3 17s 6d. The Rothwell

Council promised to furnish particulars of cost of the workhouse dated as soon as prepared.

The question of storing water at the workhouse

had been under the consideration of the Committee, and the cost gone into. Messrs

Charlesworth quoted terms for water for boiling and it was agreed that the firm be further written to and the water analysed.

Specifications were to be obtained for the making of a pond of a suitable size for storage,

the work of construction as far as possible to be carried out by the workhouse inmates.

Prices for additional garden seats were to be obtained.

The minutes were confirmed, the question of the new Registry office being referred to the next meeting, and the question of reference to the next meeting of the Council as the best arrangement.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Mr. B. S. Brown, who has been giving short addresses. On Sunday, the service was conducted in the morning by the Rev. B. E. Wheeler, who preached a very appropriate sermon. In the afternoon, a crowded congregation assembled, which was presided over by Mr. S. Morton, of Rothwell,

who after a few remarks called upon Mrs

Wheeler to read the service of song "Gather ed sheaves" rendered by the chapel choir.

Mr. E. B. Bramley played the accompani-

WEST YORKSHIRE LEAGUE

[illegible]

The first league encounter between the sides was witnessed at Rothwell, on Saturday noon last, before a moderate attendance of spectators. Divided were the opinions as to the calibre of the "Rams" owing to their victory by the Owls at Elland, and that the Elland team vanquished the Leeds City Reserves the previous week. The home team played their regular game with the exception of Wenman who occupied outside position on the right wing in place of the injured Gifford.

Elland winning the toss, played the advantage of both wind and sun well were the first to press, Wengert in a grand centre, but only to be kicked behind. Elland now gradually played down the field and forced a try. Many were the attacks repulsed by the defence, but the players of Elland, who kicked in fine style. The visitors next underwent a strong onslaught, and a shot ending in a six yards. Elland had a turn, and for a while had the upper hand, but the visitors again pressed and forced an unsuccessful corner. Well breaking away Berry was pulled down off-side. Tiffany had a shot which hit

Alongside of the net, whilst Kaje was busy with a "stinger" which just cleared the bar, the visitors got off with another rush, the visitors having a lucky escape, the custodian loudly applauded for his fine save. The goalkeeper planted the ball well into the goal from a corner, the goalkeeper was fined, but only to find Wenman planted the ball into the goal, which ended in a goal. The custodian again saved well from a corner. The half-time was called by Berry. Half-time was called with the scores blank. Elland restarted the game and assumed aggressive tactics. Both sides played down the field, but Hargreaves' shot

Berry again put on the wrong side of the net by sent in a shot which the custodian successfully dealt with. The visitors continued to make tracks up the field, but met with little success for a great portion of the afternoon, but at last Hammill was caught, snapping one of his kicks charged down by his opponents. Evading opposition he sent in a shot (who had to leave his charge) and possession of the ball, and thereby scored.

goal of the match. This unexpected put the homesters on their mettle as regular bombardment followed in their quarters, when a penalty was awarded. The place was awarded to the visitors, and again fortune favoured them as the custodian being able to pass the shot with his left foot. Roth renewed the attack but met with stern defence, all the attempts being wasted. Just before the close, Ellis came away and looked like scoring but when he came to the rescue. After a fine finish, the game ended in a victory for the visitors by a goal to nil. The downplay of the home team is mainly attributed to the display of the visitors' custodian,

For the homesters, Dickenson was at goal; Amos in the back division as a treat, whilst Kale and Johnson were given plenty of work in the half-back line. The forward division was very disappointing. Leaves and Berry were playing very well, but were injured; Aked and Tiffany stuck to the sidelines too long and indulged too freely in rushing.

instead of opening the game out more than he can gave a favourable impression. He came out of his usual position, he put his hands in the nice centres. The forwards' lack of imagination and passing was conspicuous. With a little more headwork at the quarter of an hour instead of rushing at the half, the match might have been pulled out. The game ought to have been more secure in the first half.

STARBECK v. OULTON.

---

The visitors assumed the aggressive role from the best of the opening exchange. Starbeck was attacked for a considerable time, but eventually, the leather shooting over the bow, the homesters worked the ball to their opponents' half where they were when Brown handled the ball in the area. The kick was taken by Laycock and resulted in an excellent goal. This seemed to give the Oulien team who infused a little more life into their play, and attacked the goal. Smith sent in a beautiful shot which was deflected by the goalkeeper. This was the forerunner of several other good shots which finally equalised the score. The Oulien team were sending in a stinging shot which struck the post and on the leather rebounding, it was deflected into the net by Edwards. So the Oulien team were awarded a free kick from the edge of the field. Edwards, and Smith, who took the kick, scored a beautiful goal, thus giving the visitors a 2-1 lead.

Immediately on the restart, the home side came down the slope with an irresistible rush and they scored before the ball had been in contact with any of the Oults.

"Maud says she's a little in love with her new motor-car." "Get another case where you're in a hurry." "Artist: 'I should like to paint your daughter's face.'" Mrs. Henshington: "Her maid told us this—she's a little in love with her new motor-car." "Sloberly: 'Say, Ross, can you get me the look of your sister's hair?'" Bobbie: "Yes; but not for nothing." "She's engaged to the man I rejected three times?" "Yes, he mentioned it; he said the luck of old times was on him." "Mrs. Dombush: 'Nelson was coming to call, but I told him you would be engaged this evening.'" Mrs. Girard: "Nelson was coming to call. Written by Mrs. Dombush."

THE REV. J. A. ALDENBERG'S CHURCH.

The Mr. Willis Aldenberg paid a special visit to the Rev. J. A. Aldenberg's church at Wall Street Sunday. The occasion was the Young People's Institute anniversary. In the morning he presided on "The universal application of the Gospel," and gave an address in the afternoon on "Professor Drummond's teaching of young people," and in the evening, he discoursed to about one hundred persons on "The Mission of Theology." Mr. Aldenberg was effectively aided by his wife, Mrs. Stephenson's sermon on "The Kingdom of God," which has been very highly order and greatly pleased all the members as well as those who are new to the Church, who are hopeful of a return here in the Spring.

WISE AND OTHERWISE.

Sometimes men work overtime trying to dodge it away.
After a man runs into debt he either walks out or stays.
The place man knows anything to say is a public house.
It says what is fulfilled? — Merely the feminine principle.
A distant relation is one who is very rich, and does not recognize you.
There is no smarter than you are, unless you know the course they decide you.
You can't get smart last very long. They will understand the art of making up.
Mourning over lost opportunities is about as useful as mourning the fact that did not exist.
A... "Thine was a case of love at first sight."
He didn't find fault; that's why forethought was displayed.
Foolish: I married in haste. Very foolish: I suppose you thought it would be better than getting married at all?
Caroline, isn't it how much bigger the universe seems when you've got to pick it back than it does when you're carrying it?

"Maud says 'plaid' in love with her new motor-car," said another case where new is used for old.

Artist: "I should like to paint your daughter's portrait." "I don't like to," said the factory man, "because she is a factory girl."

Sloberly: "Joe, Bobby, can you get me a lock of hair from the girl who married me just now?" "She's wearing it," said the other.

Time: "I have just been to a rejected three times?" "Yes, he mentioned it," he said the other time.

Mr. Drummers was really wonderful.

Mr. Drummers: "I don't want to call, but I told him you would be engaged this evening."

Bluster: "Do you mean to say that I am a liar?" "No," said the other, "but I don't know if you are."

Unpleasant: "I hope that I could not do anything so unpleasant as to tell you that I am a liar."

Father: "That cat made an awful noise in the back entry last night." "I told you I said that thing since she ate the carpenter's thinks he can't eat."

Elzie: "Mamma's so disappointed. Her cake didn't turn out well as she expected." "Tummy's good, but I can have as much as I want."

Mr. Jones: "I have three mortars to make a pestle, then, they say." "Yes, the first makes the dough, the second makes the mortar, and the third makes an ass of him."

At the evening services conducted by Mr. Harvill, Mr. Longhorns' train sang, his Cross being "When I survey the wondrous

CIRCULATION OF BANK NOTES.

The general public do not know much about the circulation of bank notes. It is chiefly important to most of us concerning bank notes, is that in the course of their circulation they all too seldom find their way into our pocket books, and that on the rare occasions when they appear their circulation is not long delayed, and they are soon upon their travels again. In America, where they are used much more than in our country, even upon bank notes are made into our wheels, and in that form enter upon another, though different, career of circulation.

The tendency of everything is to wear out—bank notes, coins, clothes, our lives, kidneys, and what not? Truly we can think of no exception. The ultimate fate of all things is wreck.

For fully twenty years I was what may be called a "physical wreck." These ominous words are the beginning of a letter written by Mrs. Elizabeth Clark, on 10th August, 1900, to the proprietors of Mother Selig's Curative Syrup. "In all that time I have never been free from illness and lameness, and never free from pain. I am in the last summer of my life, and as soon as the cold and wet of winter set in I was laid up again. In December, 1897, the lameness, which had been of old, and for some days my condition was critical. At last after a stiff leg I recovered from the lameness; but it left me weak and exhausted, with the lameness worse than before. Sometimes I had to go like a fish out of water, and was so weak that my husband could not bear to let me go out. Then a land, dry cough fastened upon me, and shook my body through and through. No violent was that I could get black tea in the face, while back of my head I felt as if a hammer were striking me. I was so weak that I could not walk across the room more than a walk of miles had formerly done.

A doctor attended me for a long while and did his best, but when at last I was cured my medicine was doing me no good. I then used it and began to take Mother Selig's Syrup. I was better from the first bottle, and went on taking the Syrup and improving until I was completely cured. Mrs. Selig still lives here in 1904, at 12, 12th Street, New York, New York, and writes: "My health continues excellent. The medicine has done me every good, and I am now a healthy and happy woman. I have not seen a doctor since I began to take Mother Selig's Syrup."

WHAT ROTHWELL PEOPLE SAID.

"Yes, we certainly place confidence in a neighbor's word, but are the cure thorough, lasting cures?" This is what Rothwell people have asked when they have read of neighbors over in Leeds having been cured by Don's Backache Kidney Pills. To all these the following emphatic statement will come as welcome news.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis reside at 9, Derby Street, Bank, Leeds. They are well-known and respected in the neighborhood, and Mr. Lewis has recently written as a very interesting letter, which he asks us to publish, at the same time saying that either he or his wife will be very pleased to personally testify to the truth of the statement. He writes:—

"Dear Sirs,—About nine years ago the doctor who was attending my wife told her she was suffering from kidney complaint. She was troubled a great deal from swelling of the legs, pains in the back, headache, feeble appetite, weakness, &c. We tried all sorts of remedies, but nothing seemed to do my wife any good. She continued to suffer in this way till I heard of Don's Backache Kidney Pills, and thinking they might suit my wife's complaint, I sent for a box. She began taking them, but at first they did not seem to agree with her. However, she persevered with them, and in a little while began to improve. The swellings went down, the pains disappeared, &c. she was no longer troubled with her head and before long quite recovered her health. My wife is a different woman today, and we cannot speak too highly of Don's Backache Kidney Pills. You have done what I wanted to publish this, and if any person suffering in the same way care to call on us, we shall be pleased to add further testimony to the merit of Don's pills. I am, Sirs, yours truly, (Signed) William Lewis."

Two Years Later, Mr. Lewis now says:—

"Since I wrote the above letter two years ago, stating that Don's Backache Kidney Pills had cured my wife of kidney disorder and deprived her of the pain she had enjoyed perfect health, and has no sign of the old trouble coming back. Don's Pills completely cured her after eight years of suffering, and the cure was lasting."

If you are ill, write and fully describe your case to us. We shall be pleased to give you the best advice in our power, free of charge. You can depend upon your letter being treated in strict confidence. Don's Backache Kidney Pills are two shillings and sixpence per box (six boxes for thirteen shillings and sixpence). Of all chemists and druggists, or post free, on receipt of a postal order from Foster-McCullough Co., 8, Wells-street, Oxford-street, London, W."

A WORKMAN'S FEARFUL INJURIES.

HEALED BY ZAM-BUK.
AMPUTATION AND PARALYSIS.
AVERTED.

The almost incredible story of a workman's fearful injuries leading under the influence of Zam-Buk, after doctors had pronounced amputation necessary, has just been carefully investigated. The subject is Mr. J. Wynn, of 25, Land Court, Water Lane, Leeds. Mr. Wynn, in an interview with a Leeds reporter, said:—

"On the 14th August, while working for Messrs. Beckett and Perkins in Leeds, I met with an accident at a circular saw. I was cutting a piece of wood, when the bench shifted out of position, with the result that my hand slipped, and was caught in the teeth, and was terribly mutilated. The finger finger was completely severed except for a little bit of skin, and it bled profusely. At Leeds Infirmary they put in three stitches, and two or three days later I felt a muzzling sensation in my leg, just as if some one was using my leg as a lever. I remained an out-patient at the Infirmary for about nine weeks; instead of being healed, I lost the use of my arm completely. The surgeons said they would have to amputate the first and fourth fingers of the right hand if I was to recover. I could feel, and it seemed as if the Zam-Buk, and that was to be treated by two private doctors, and then for a month at Cookridge Hospital. However, seeing how ineffectual ordinary measures were, I had now begun to use Zam-Buk. I rubbed it in freely and frequently. The injured finger was completely healed. I rubbed the balm also right along the arm to three inches above the elbow. At this time I had no feeling or power of movement whatever. These rubs I continued systematically, having the operations repeated four or five times a day. I needed them."

"At the end of three weeks I noticed that the weakness was not so marked as had been. I continued the use of the Zam-Buk, and had great relief right into the evening and put new life and strength into me, and in addition I began to feel better. By the time I had used the rubbing, being attended at the progress I was making after the doctors had failed of amputation. By this time my arm was feeling better, and my standing injuries, the strength was restored to my hand and arm, and I have now completely regained my arm."

"You can see for yourself," added Mr. Wynn, holding up his right arm which was as healthy and brawny as any working man's. "I have now managed to get my arm into my right hand whenever I wish to-day. I have a gripping power of over 90 lb. My hand is here, and will stand inspection, and I have my papers showing that I got admission in the Leeds County Court under the Workmen's Compensation Act, for £40 and costs."

"I am now, but alone to thank for my complete recovery, as well as for my escaping the amputation of two fingers. What the doctors said amputation alone could not have done has been done by Zam-Buk, to the surprise of everyone. Zam-Buk has not only proved a perfect healer in my case, but it has also penetrated the flesh and gone to the bone, and has cured the disease. Zam-Buk gets its wonderful healing and curative powers from certain rare herbs. It is indigestible alike for cats, brutes, birds, scalds, sprains, lacerations, poisoned wounds, festering sores, eczema, ulcers, piles, leg, leg, and other ailments which are common to children, bad circulation, neuralgia and rheumatism, colds in the head and on the chest, and all infirmities and ailments of the skin. It is sold in 14d. per box, or 2s. 6d. for large family size (2s. 6d. box contains nearly four times the 14d.); of all chemists, or direct from the same price from the Zam-Buk Co., 4, Red Cross Street, London, E.C. Always keep Zam-Buk handy at home."

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not at all times assume ourselves with or hold ourselves responsible for the expressed opinions of our correspondents.]

ROTHWELL INFIRMARY DEMONSTRATION COMMITTEE.

To the Editors of the Rothwell Times.

Sirs, I should be pleased if you would allow me a little space in your paper to draw the minds of the inhabitants of Rothwell and district to the report of the above committee in your paper of last week. In the first place, seeing that these gentlemen are dealing with public money, it is rather surprising that the report appeared as it did, expecting to find the accounts properly audited and published so that even the smallest detail would have been examined, and seeing the sums of the money involved it is the duty of this committee to have this done. Further, let us examine the income and without taking into consideration the income from the demonstration we find that it is made up as follows:—balance in hand £4 10s 4d, subscriptions £12 6s 6d, public house collections £20 1s 10d, and then from the 24th notice that the grants made after the demonstration amounted to £50 made up as follows:—grants to Leeds Infirmary £24, Women and Children's Hospital £6, balance in hand £15 4s 4d, total £60 15s 4d. So that really there must have been a loss over the demonstration of £4 10s 4d. And then when one notices that the reserve fund has been drawn upon greatly, it looks as if the whole affair must have been a failure and that if there had been no demonstration the committee would have had in hand the £4 10s 4d and possibly the £100 which was to have been must have been some bungling somewhere and I feel justified in calling the attention of the public to the report of last week. Another item which I think needs further explanation is the small item in the expenditure marked "other items" £24 12s 1d. Surely this is a serious item to be placed among the odds and ends, and surely the public should know what "other items" are. No doubt bad weather and possibly bad management for working out good results, for they possess material for firing up the show, a silver cup value £20 for football competition, and £60 in bank as a reserve fund; by careful management all these may be utilised to profitable advantage, and the object of the demonstration may be again be rewarded in the years to come.

Thanking you in anticipation, Belgrave, Mrs. J. STEAD, Secretary to the Committee.

CARLTON WESLEYAN P. S. A.

The chapel was again full at the above service for the week ending last. Mr. James Hurrell, C.C. of Louth, gave an address on "An English on the Decline." Special songs were rendered by Mrs. Hutchinson, wife of the Rev. Mr. Hurrell, and by Mr. E. B. Bramley. The proceedings were in charge of Mr. Michael Ingham, and a very pleasant service was spent.

ROTHWELL PARISH CHURCH.

Last evening there was a good attendance at the above church at the annual mission service. The Rev. R. C. Bakket, of Leeds, gave a lecture on "Mission work in Canada," and the Rev. Mr. Hurrell, of Louth, being in charge of Mr. E. B. Bramley. The collection was taken on behalf of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

EAST AND WEST YORKSHIRE UNION RAILWAYS.

The official trial return for the above railway for the week ending Nov. 12th, 1904, is as follows:—the amount during Nov. 12th, 1904, was £470, thus showing a 12th, the return of £470 against £450 for the corresponding period last year, a decrease of £20.

THE INQUIRY INTO DOAN'S IMPORTANT LEADS EVIDENCE.

In the press of our neighbouring town, Leeds, for some years past, there have been appearing statements made by Leeds people who have been cured of kidney complaints by Doan's Backache Kidney Pills. We have determined to inquire into all these statements, and we give here the reply made by a Leeds woman when asked whether the cure had proved a lasting one.

OVER TWELVE MONTHS AGO I made a statement that I had been cured of serious kidney trouble by Doan's Backache Kidney Pills," says Mrs. Shaw, of 3, Strand Terrace, Jack Lane, Holbeck, Leeds. "This I confirm today, and can add that the cure has lasted right up to the present time."

For three years I suffered agonies with jaundice and passing of gall-stones. I cannot think of the time I went through during those three years. These pains were caused by the disordered action of my kidneys. When I began using Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, I soon found they were doing me a great deal of good, so I kept on with them. Very soon they made a remarkable improvement in my health, and the backaches disappeared."

"Although this was as I have said, over a year ago, the improvement in my health has been maintained ever since."

If you are ill, write and fully describe your case. We will be pleased to give you the best advice in our power, free of charge. You can depend upon your letter being treated in strict confidence. Doan's Backache Kidney Pills are shipping the following prices per box (six boxes for thirteen shillings and sixpence). Of all chemists and stores, or Foster-McClellan Co., 2, Wells-street, Oxford-street, London, W.

ROTHWELL WHITE ROSE v. BRADFORD CITY RESERVES.

Considerable interest was manifested in the encounter between these teams at Rothwell, on Saturday last, and notwithstanding the great depression in trade there was a large attendance of spectators. Out of the seven matches played Bradford had won 6, lost 1, and scored 25 goals to 8 against; Rothwell had played 9, won 5, lost 1, and drawn 3, with 18 goals for and 14 against. The half-time score was 10-5. Goals for Rothwell were scored by: Hargreaves, Kewley, O'Brade, and Farrell; forwards: Duggan, Hargreaves, Harris and Whittles. Owing to the Bradford first team being no longer engaged, Hargreaves and Whittles were sent out. The strongest team that Bradford had turned out this season. Bradford won the toss and elected to play with the advantage of the wind and goal. Rothwell kicked off and the reserves soon became dangerous until Brown took the ball up the field. Bradford now pressed in the strongest team that they had turned out this season. Bradford now pressed in the strongest team that they had turned out this season. LOTHOUSE PARISH CHURCH v. WORTLEY.

The above match was played on the Oldfield Lane Ground, Wortley, on Saturday last, before a very large attendance of spectators. The home team played towards the Brewery and the visitors took up an attacking position but had shooting spoiled all efforts and the home backs cleared easily. It was a very close contest, however, the home forwards were disorganised. Despite the fact that they had a weakened side they showed up more prominently than the home forwards. WOODLESFORD v. ALTOFTS RES.

The Altofts second string visited the Hesp Lane enclosure on Saturday afternoon last, and in fine weather and under a fairly large gathering of home partisans essayed to add to their points in the Leeds and District League. The home team played towards the Brewery and the visitors took up an attacking position but had shooting spoiled all efforts and the home backs cleared easily. It was a very close contest, however, the home forwards were disorganised. Despite the fact that they had a weakened side they showed up more prominently than the home forwards.

MIRFIELD UNITED v. OULTON.

The Owtis paid a visit to Mirfield with a very weak team on Saturday afternoon last. The absentees were Bridges, Holmes, Bentley and Bradley, whose vacancies were filled by Brown, Bradley and A. Holmes. Oulton started with only ten men, Bradley failing to turn up. The visitors lost the toss and played against the wind and slope; Mirfield immediately attacked. After several unsuccessful shots, the home team were awarded a penalty. Longbottom scoring a goal. The Owtis made brief incursions into the home half, but all their attacks were of no avail, the backs driving them back repeatedly. Oulton, by a good movement, placed the Mirfield goal in danger. Mirfield scored well, and play was transferred to the centre. Mirfield again attacked strongly and a good shot by Prosser again lowered the Oulton cloud, Hall making a poor attempt to save. Oulton came away, but were pulled by a high kick by Grounds; the game for the remainder of the first half was a scrapping nature and nothing further being scored Mirfield led by 2 goals to 1. For the second half Oulton rearranged their team, and Brown and Bentley, who proved highly successful, the Mirfield forwards being unable to combine with advantage. For an infringement in front of the goal, Oulton were awarded a free kick, from which Mann-drill netted. The game now became very exciting. Brown and Bentley were determined but the defence of the home team was very sound and they were unable to score by a goal to Oulton. The whole of the Oulton forwards played fairly well individually, but there was very little understanding between the forwards. However, a good account of himself, but the pick of the front line was Edwards. Raybould played a good game amongst the backs and Brown at full-back was very reliable.

WOOLLESDALE WESLEYAN
MISSIONARY ANNIVERSARY

Special services in behalf of the Foreign Missionary Society of the Wesleyan Church, last, in the Woolleddale Wesleyan Chapel, the Rev. B. Whitehead, of Northampton, being the preacher.

The missionary meeting was held on Tuesday night last, and was well attended, and the Rev. J. H. Whitehead, of Northampton, being the preacher.

The Rev. J. H. Whitehead, in opening the meeting as the only speaker who had at that time turned up, told the audience, which was only small, that Mr. William Denton, the advertised chairman, had sent a telegram saying he was en route, but expressed a prayer for God's blessing on the meeting and promised a donation of 10s. to the funds.

The secretary, the Rev. B. Whitehead, and the Rev. H. Russell, from the Castleford circuit, not having been arrived, having been as they explained afterwards delayed by the train running late owing to the storm, the Rev. J. H. Whitehead asked Mr. Cartwright to take the chair and support him in his loneliness, which he did most ably.

While Mr. Cartwright was speaking about the interest there ought to be shown in foreign missions, saying the home was successful as they had interest in foreign missions, and when he was about to ask Mr. Hargreaves to give the report and address the meeting, the two wanderers came in to the joy of all.

The Rev. B. Whitehead afterwards gave a brief account from the annual missionary report after which the Rev. B. Russell gave the dedication address. He spoke of his missionary work on the West coast of Africa where he had laboured for nearly 20 years, about the time when the gospel was introduced into the country, and the great work which was being gradually swept away, and strong bands of Christian men and women working for God, and loyal to the Methodist Church. He gave the instance of the change Christianity had wrought in the character of the people. Rum selling was prevalent amongst the natives, and at one of his synods a resolution was passed that all those who were leaders or members of the Methodist Church would abstain from the sale of rum, and the people were to give up this traffic or give up their club bones. All he was proud to say, "we up the liquor traffic. One of those on being informed by the parish church of the resolution, were to have to be made in the expense of the missions in that part of the country readily promised £100 towards supporting a native agency.

The meeting concluded with a resolution of thanks proposed by the Rev. J. H. Whitehead, Mr. Cartwright for presiding, Mr. Russell and the missionary collectors.

This was seconded by Mr. Hutton and heartily carried.

The collections and contributions are slightly in advance of last year.

WOOLLESDALE WESLEYAN

A meeting of the West Yorkshire League was held on Wednesday night last at the Green Dragon Hotel, Leeds, Mr. B. Lockwood occupying the chair.

The following trawlers were confirmed:—Mr. Musgrave (Leeds City) to Upper Armley Church, W. Aked (Rothwell White Rose) to Beckwithside, and T. (Leeds City) to Beeston Hill Parish Church.

It was also decided to accept the following re-arranged fixtures—Leeds City v. Rothwell White Rose, December 17th; Oulton v. Beckwithside, December 17th; and Oulton v. Rothwell White Rose, January 21st. Dewsbury and Beeston were protested against the postponement of their fixture in consequence of the smallness of the crowd. Against Oulton they claimed two points and the expense they had incurred in making arrangements for the match. The Dewsbury representative, in support of the claim, and Oulton failed to fulfil their obligations, and were given a definite promise to do so. Spectators were admitted to the ground, and the money which was taken had to be returned. The players were on the field until four o'clock. The reason Oulton did not go to Dewsbury in April, was because four of its members at their team were threatened with dismissal from their work if they took part in the match.

On the motion of Mr. J. Campbell, seconded by Mr. Denton, Oulton were fined £1, according to rule, the question of expenses, which amounted to £2, was referred to the Association, and it was decided that the date for the match must be re-arranged within the next fortnight.

Motley had also failed to fulfil their engagement with the Dewsbury Club, and the full penalty was imposed. No claim was made for expenses.

Rothwell White Rose lodged a complaint against Mr. Forster, the referee in their match with Beeston Hill, on the ground that he was seven minutes late, and that some of his decisions were inaccurate. The complaint was made by Mr. John Young (plans) and Mr. Watson Denton (yells). Referees were provided by Mr. Aaron Jeffery, and the proceedings were in charge of Mr. Hutchinson, the secretary.

The official traffic return for the above return for the week ending Nov. 19th, 1904, is £265, the amount during the corresponding week last year was £463, thus showing a decrease of £198. For the week ending Nov. 19th, the return is £254 against £265 for the corresponding period last year, a decrease of £11.

WOOLLESDALE WESLEYAN

The annual ball in connection with the above club was held in the Harold Hall, on Friday evening last. About 90 were present, and indulged in dancing from 7.30 p.m. to 2 a.m. The ball was tenderly decorated with flags and emblems of the game. The M.C.s were Messrs. F. Bell and W. Bradley, and the stewards, Messrs. F. Trenchard and W. Bradley, while the music was supplied by Mr. John Young (plans) and Mr. Watson Denton (yells). Refreshments were provided by Mr. Aaron Jeffery, and the proceedings were in charge of Mr. Hutchinson, the secretary.

STOUTON UNITED V. WORTLEY.

These teams met at Stouton on Saturday afternoon last, in the first round of the Rothwell Charity Cup Competition. Redman scored the first goal for Stouton, and the visitors had matters all their own way for a time, but Walmley headed some clever dribbles and took the ball near the visitors' goal. Murphy received it, and in reply Bedman sent in a tricky shot, which Morley narrowly missed. United combined and Smart scored the first for Stouton. Walmley narrowly missed scoring a second. Half-time arrived with the home team leading by 1 goal to nil. Worley by strong running and smart football, the match was not to be re-played. Hard lines for Worley who are not at all blame.
